

Los Alamos National Laboratory Postdoc Career Fair 2008

The Los Alamos National Laboratory (LANL) postdoc Career Fair is an annual event held for LANL postdocs who wish to make themselves available for employment positions external to LANL. Los Alamos National Lab currently employs approximately 350+ postdocs who have been invited to join 40 companies to take part in this event.

This Career Fair is an excellent networking opportunity for Postdocs and Recruiters. It is also an opportunity to strengthen LANL's relationships with industry, government, academia and LANL alumni.
